SENIOR EDITOR

DESCRIPTION

St. Louis Magazine is looking for an experienced, versatile, and sharp senior editor, a critical position in our evolving media company. The ideal candidate will have a strong passion for magazine journalism, the ability to multi-task and manage others, as well as impressive chops in digital journalism. Benefits include dental and medical insurance.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Report, write, edit, and/or proofread a wide range of articles.
- Plan, oversee, and write service features.
- Help oversee stlmag.com and other digital content.
- Generate compelling story ideas on a regular basis.
- Manage at least one department of the magazine every month.
- Represent the magazine in the community through event attendance and possible media appearances.
- Collaborate with other editors and writers.
- Manage other staff and interns.
- Other duties as required

QUALIFICATIONS

- A passion for journalism.
- A high level of comfort, experience, and savviness with regard to digital journalism.
- A bachelor's degree in journalism or English.
- A minimum of three years of experience reporting, writing and editing in a magazine or newspaper environment.
- A deft and lyrical writing style
- A knack for collaborating with freelancers and assigning magazine-style features to multiple writers.
- Ability to manage a high volume of work in a fast-paced environment.
- Skilled at packaging content with wit and originality.
- Knowledge of the St. Louis region, or the ability to attain that knowledge quickly and remain abreast of what's happening across a range of areas.
- Adeptness at balancing fun and professionalism, creativity and focus.
- Experience with magazines, management, and online work is strongly preferred.

HOW TO APPLY

Please send the following materials to Jarrett Medlin (jmedlin@stlmag.com; put "Senior Editor" in the subject line):

- A brief introduction describing who you are, what work you've done, and how your background and interests overlap with the position.
- A PDF of your resume.
- PDFs or links to 5-7 of your finest writing samples.
